CONGRESS TURNS DOWN GERMANY'S PEACE PLOT

IWAII NATIONAL GUARD ISSUED

Changes Involve Resignations of Maui and Kauai Officers, Transfers of Several to Guard Reserve and Consolidation of Second. Third and Fourth Regiments Into One

Orders establishing the reorganization of the National Guard of Hawaii, through its consolidation from four regiments to two, as announced several weeks ago, were issued today from guard headquarters. The orders cover only the islands of Hawaii, Maul and Kauai. Orders for Oahu will fol-

Chief interest in the orders centers in their effect on Individual officers and on company organizations. A number of officers who have held a vital part in the development of the guard up to this time are announced as resigned, their positions being superfluous in the new organization.

Patrolman K. Walohia has been sus pended for one month by Sheriff Rose for unnecessarily striking a soldier with his club June 19. The sheriff investigated the case, found his man in the wrong and penalized him of his own volition without any advice or complaint emanating from outside his department. Walohia waived his right to a trial.

Walohia's offense occurred at the corner of Alakea and King streets in the early morning and was told of in the Star-Bulletin the same day. In

A FRENCH PORT, June 27.—American troops were today landed on French soil and given a mighty greeting from the people by whose side they will battle against the Germansthe French.

As the American regiments landed at this port today, there were thunderous cheers from thousands of French people who had gathered for hours, awaiting the arrival of the men from the vessels which brought them across the sea.

The American troops passed the submarine zone successfully. The camp will not be distant from this point, where General Sibert has installed facilities for the U.S. detachments. The men are in excellent shape and enthusiastic at the prospects of early service at the front.

Gen. Pershing is expected tomorrow.

Today the harbor is dotted with the transports and their convoying vessels and the streets are filled with soldiers in khaki and bluejackets. Numberless trucks are carrying supplies to the camp.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 27.—No further disclosures of the details of the epochal landing of American soldiers in France will be given out to the public just now, for military reasons. The numbers of those sent to Europe are being con-
